

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

7 September 2015

Demise of Founder of Eng Wah Global, Mr Goh Eng Wah

The management and staff of Eng Wah Global are deeply saddened to announce the passing of Mr Goh Eng Wah, the Executive Chairman of Eng Wah Global and its group of companies. Mr Goh passed away peacefully on 5 September 2015. He was 92.

Mr Goh Eng Wah was an illustrious entrepreneur who pioneered the cinema industry of Singapore in both film distribution and exhibition. Spanning 70 years, his entertainment empire included the management of several iconic entertainment businesses in post-war Singapore such as Happy Theatre, Victory Theatre in Gay World, Silver World Theatre which eventually led to his management of Happy World.

A pioneering film producer, Mr Goh played an integral role in the cinema history of Cantonese films in Hong Kong. The company has since expanded into one of the major Singaporean brands and Mr Goh was recognised for his contribution towards Singapore earlier this year as a recipient of the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SCCCI) SG50 Outstanding Chinese Business Pioneers Award.

As we celebrate the life and legacy of a pioneering visionary, the management and staff of Eng Wah Global join the family in mourning the departure of an entrepreneurial icon in Singapore.

ABOUT ENG WAH GLOBAL PTE LTD

Founded in 1946, the Eng Wah Group's business spans entertainment, properties, hospitality, and lifestyle in Singapore and Malaysia. The Group manages a portfolio of brands that include WE Cinemas, Hotel Fort Canning, Jubilee Square, 321 Clementi, and The Legends Fort Canning Park.

For more information, please contact:

Athalia Ho
Senior Sales & Marketing Executive
T: 67390105 M: 98550769
E: athaliaho@engwah.com.sg

For memorial details, please contact:

Jesslyn Lee
Sales & Marketing Executive
T: 67390123 M: 93829969
E: jesslynlee@engwah.com.sg